»What happens after the PhD? A professorship at the university of applied sciences as a career option?»

We will discuss and find answers to the following questions:

- What can I expect from a professorship at an university of applied science?
- How can I obtain it? And most importantly:
- Does it suit me and my career planning?

Our guests CHARLOTTE BRENN and Prof. SANAZ TAROMI will give short inputs and share their experience followed by intense discussion on this challenging topic.
